

RURAL HOSPITALS TO GET SURPLUS

WASHINGTON — Rural hospitals and health centers can look for a major share of the hundreds of millions of dollars of medical equipment to be released by the army and the navy. A policy has finally been worked out at the surplus property board to assure release of this material for public health use, first in areas that have no existing facilities, second in areas which have insufficient facilities. So great is the need of rural and small-town hospitals and clinics that there will be little equipment left for replacement.

This policy was achieved only after a long and bitter dispute between the surplus property board and Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association. Fishbein, in whose journal advertise the largest makers of medical equipment, had urged that this vast volume of surplus material not be released at once.

Instead, he wanted it stored and released gradually in small quantities in order not to upset the market for manufacturers of medical goods. In addition, Fishbein insisted that huge quantities of certain supplies, such as bandages, could not be used because they differed somewhat from accepted standard sizes.

However, in a lengthy session at the office of U. S. Surgeon General Thomas Parran, Dr. Fishbein finally was won over and even agreed to serve on the overall board which will recommend on the disposal of medical supplies.

Three types of equipment will be distributed—public health supplies, surgical and therapeutic instruments, and pharmaceuticals. A board of public officials and physicians headed by Dr. Parran will recommend their allocation to Federal Security Chairman Paul McNutt, who will work through the surplus property board. Actual allocation of the supplies within the states will rest with state boards to be composed of various federal government and state medical officials.

Note — Federal officials are worried lest the state boards become a weak link in the setup. They fear that, in areas of greatest need, state groups will not be anxious to aid in the equipping of Negro clinics and hospitals. Therefore, an effort will be made to work out rigid requirements in Washington. No building program is yet arranged to go along with the disposal of medical supplies, though every effort will be made to convert army buildings into hospitals and clinics.

CHURCHILL'S NEEDLING

Backstage fact about the Joe Davies pilgrimage to London is that originally he was picked to go to Moscow for an intimate talk with Stalin, but his doctor forbade it.

Davies was slated for the Moscow trip because he is the only U. S. ambassador since the United States recognized Russia who has been welcome at the Kremlin. This was primarily due to Joe's book, "Mission to Moscow" and the film by the same name, which gave a sympathetic portrayal of Soviet progress. Therefore, it was planned to have him impress on Stalin that recent diplomatic snarls had alienated American public opinion.

When Davies was unable to go to Moscow, it was decided that Harry Hopkins should do the job instead; while Davies would go to London and urge Churchill to stop needling Russia.

This latter job is considered almost as important as the Hopkins trip to Moscow. For several White House advisers are convinced that Churchill, always critical of the Russians, delights in anything which keeps the United States and the Soviet in a state of mutual suspicion. The British diplomatic game for a hundred years has been to balance two powers off against each other. Therefore U. S.-U. S. S. R. rivalry is right down Churchill's alley.

That is why Joe Davies is empowered to pull no punches in telling Churchill that balance-of-power needling is not appreciated in Washington.

CAPITAL CHAFF

When French statesmen Bonnet and Bidault appeared at the White House, President Truman and staff were so confident the discussion would be friendly that Truman's statement was prepared before the conference. Mimeographed copies, with the ink already dry, were handed out by White House Press Aid Eben Ayres the minute Bonnet and Bidault left.

When New York Congressman Gus Bennett presented President Truman with a special pocket Bible recently, Truman pulled a magnifying glass from his pocket and told Bennett, "You see, I'm all prepared to read this gift, which I'm very happy to receive."

Democratic members of congress were amazed to see Senator Pappy O'Daniel of Texas turn up for the recent testimonial dinner to Ed Pauley and Bob Hannegan. The bitterly anti-Roosevelt and anti-administration O'Daniel led the applause during most speeches.

Farewell Dinner Given For Rev. Baldwin Sunday

Last Sunday evening, a very interesting meeting was held in honor of Reverend Baldwin and his family. Well over 180 people attended the potluck dinner at the Methodist church and enjoyed a very worthwhile musical program.

During the evening, we were favored with musical numbers from a string trio composed of Mr. Dick Gordon, violin; Mrs. Dick Gordon, cello; Mrs. Irma Sanders, piano; a quartet composed of Mrs. R. G. Pritchard, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Blaine and Jack Murdock, and vocal solos from Mrs. Earl Buck, with Mrs. Virginia Rutherford accompanist. Then Mrs. Archie Keesling, the mistress of ceremonies, suggested that Don, who as you all know has a lovely voice, sing for us. He responded nobly with two numbers, "Invictus", and the very colorful composition, "Glory Road". Mrs. Strayer, the wife of Reverend J. H. Strayer of San Jose, accompanied him in a most interesting manner.

The whole evening was more than worthwhile for even though Don and Elizabeth are leaving, there was no feeling of sadness, but rather happiness for them, for we all know that Don is going to do the thing he has wanted to do for years and that the ministry of Christianity will profit by it.

One of the highlights of the evening came when Mrs. Keesling introduced D. H. Cramer who very wittily and definitely to the point, presented the gift from the friends present. This was a movie camera and projector accompanied by a purse. As usual Don and his wife responded in a suitable manner so that all present knew that they and the family would really enjoy this little "love gift" from his church and friends.

All of us know the fine work that Don and Elizabeth have done here, but there is one thing that the people of Campbell probably do not know. That is that they came in 1938 from Montana and entered student work at Stanford University heading up the Wesley Foundation. This gave Don part of the training which he has so well applied here in Campbell in the handling of young as well as older people, and I am sure we in Campbell have profited by those years he had with young college students.

Frankly, we're sorry to see them go, but we are also sure that he was right when he said that we will be happy to see Reverend L. J. Osborne and his family come.

LBen Howard.

Garage Destroyed By Fire Sunday

The fire department was called Sunday afternoon to Dillon avenue where the garage of Wiley Pierce property was afire. The first member of the company who opened the doors reported the inside of the building afire.

A group of buildings and the house all very near or connected were saved but the garage was destroyed.

Picnic Dinner Held Wednesday By Pundita Circle

The members of Pundita Circle held their last meeting of the year on June 6, in the garden of Mrs. Pardee, the main feature being a picnic dinner. The tables were set in the arbor and the weather was perfect to add to the enjoyment of the occasion.

After the dinner the ladies held a short business meeting, at which the president, Mrs. S. B. Smith presided. The following list of officers for the ensuing year was announced: President, Mrs. Mrs. S. B. Smith; vice president, Mrs. George Rucker; recording secretary, Mrs. D. H. Cramer; corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. E. Mumma; treasurer, Mrs. M. E. Purmort, and Mrs. Earl Book-er, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Carboni gave an interesting report of the last County Federation meeting.

Several guests were present, Mrs. Harry Fore of Glendale, Calif., Mrs. Edith Badger, a former member, Mrs. W. H. Scott, Mrs. J. G. Plumb and Mrs. M. C. Ralston.

After the business meeting the ladies wandered at will about the yard and gardens, which were at their best at this time of the year.

The pupils of Mrs. Virginia Rutherford who presented a concert of piano numbers Monday evening acquitted themselves most creditably, to the satisfaction of their teacher and families. The selections showed varied talents among the young performers.

Miss Betty Driesback is vacationing for two weeks at Oakland and Berkeley, visiting relatives.

Mrs. Hugh Cramer who has enlisted as an army nurse has been assigned to Madigan General hospital at Fort Lewis, Wash., and will be leaving for there soon.

Nestor Barret Is Guest Speaker At Kiwanis Club

Nestor Barret, secretary of the Santa Clara County Planning commission, was the speaker at last Tuesday's meeting of the Kiwanis club. He explained briefly the 1300 dwelling house project at San Lorenzo, then showed most interesting color films of the project from beginning to end. Ray Mathis presented the speaker.

The high school student who was entertained by the club this week was Ross Fuller, student manager. As a farewell gesture, Rev. Don Baldwin, accompanied by Mrs. James H. Strayer of San Jose, presented an outstanding vocal solo, "Glory Road," after which the club responded by singing several group numbers in honor of Rev. Baldwin.

Next week Dr. W. I. Merrill will present Dr. Charles Fernish of San Jose, who will discuss "Blood Plasma."

Former Campbell Man Gets Navy Promotion

George Andrews, 27, of San Jose, a graduate of Campbell high school in 1936, has advanced to torpedoman's mate, first class, USN. He has been in destroyer service since his enlistment in January, 1942, and is now serving aboard a destroyer of the Atlantic fleet.

He was in major engagements at Santa Cruz, Tulagi, Guadalcanal, Attu, Kwajalein and Siapan.

Andrews is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Andrews, 642 South 7th st., San Jose. A brother, Frank, was wounded in action as a paratrooper, and recently received an honorable discharge. A sister, Alice, is a sergeant in the WAC.

Ada Rebekahs Elect Officers at Regular Meeting

Ada Rebekah lodge convened the evening of June 3, with Helen Rice, Noble Grand presiding. During the business meeting election of officers was held, with the following chosen: Noble Grand, Angela Quetin; Vice Grand, Neva Kenny; recording secretary, Lillian Ohlen; Financial secretary, Josephine Gray; treasurer, Zadie Rice; trustee, Lillie Carney.

Final plans were made for serving at the USO, June 14, with Bonnie Silberbauer as chairman.

School days was observed, and an enjoyable evening was spent by all present. Serving on the committee were Neva Kenny, Estelle Kilgallen and Lavelle Walton.

Next regular meeting will be June 19, when initiation will be conducted on a class of candidates. Committee for decoration, Lucille Lind, Bessie Rhodes, Shirley Hay and Ethlyn Hansey. Refreshment committee, Virginia Currie, Frances Swane and Mary Fablinger.

Members will kindly note that lodge will convene at 7:45 instead of 8:00. All Rebekahs are cordially invited.

Campbell High P. T. A. Entertains School Faculty

Climaxing the year's activities, the executive boards, old and new, of Campbell Union High School P. T. A. honored the faculty members at a delightful after school reception on June 7. The setting for the party was the attractive lawns of Mrs. Ray Flagg on Apricot avenue. Tables covered with flower arrangements were grouped about the lawn for the informal refreshments.

Charlene Nelson, attractive daughter of the Horace Nelsons of Casey road, entertained the group with Hawaiian dance numbers. A surprise was the presentation by Mrs. Anthony Jurras to Mrs. Clarence Fagalde, junior past president, of a handsome bag in appreciation for an active year.

Assisting Mrs. Flagg at the tastefully appointed hostess table were Mesdames H. W. Jensen, D. H. McQueen, Anthony Jurras and J. Giacomazzi.

Campbell Bond Show Wednesday

"Tomorrow The World" is the title of the special Bond Show at the local theatre next Wednesday evening and anyone purchasing a bond between now and that date will be given a free ticket. If you have been overlooked by the solicitors, please contact either Mr. Dent at the high school, or leave your application at Mr. Farley's real estate office.

With a quota of $103,100.00 in series "E" bonds, we have approximately 25% yet to be obtained prior to June 30. Your "extra" bond purchase will help make it possible for us to go over the top. This is not an obligation, but a privilege.

Fish-Parr Nuptials Held Sunday, June 10

Raymond Fish and Miss Martha Parr were united in marriage at St. Patrick's church in San Jose, Sunday, June tenth at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon. The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. T. A. Murphy before the brilliantly lighted altar. Stately arrangements of magnolia leaves and calla lilies completed the setting.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Dr. W. L. McWhirter of Centerville, California. Miss Jane Parr attended her sister as maid of honor. James J. Hudson of Oakland, brother of the groom, was best man. Mrs. B. J. Andries, also a sister of the bride, and Mrs. Paul S. Becker were the bride's maids.

Caesar Frank's "Panis Angelicus" was sung by Miss Helen Kalas. Miss Theresa Antonacci was the organist.

Mrs. Fish's gown of white chiffon was fashioned on princess lines. An off the face veil of tulle was secured with a tier of seed pearls and edged with orange blossoms. A shower bouquet of white orchids and bouvardia was arranged over her prayer book.

Miss Jane Parr wore a basque gown of blue marquisette. Her shaded delphinium and fuchsia peony spray was complimented by a Juliet cap covered with shattered delphinium and topped with a peony.

Mrs. Andries' and Mrs. Becker's gowns were identical rose-pink marquisette. They carried wedding bells covered with white shattered stock and joined with white satin hand bows. Their Juliet caps were made of shattered white stock and completed with white gladioli.

Mr. Frank Covell and Mr. Cecil Pickford both of Oakland served as ushers.

The bride's mother chose a navy suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was bird of paradise.

Mrs. F. W. Fish, mother of the groom, wore a chartruese dress with matching summer felt. Her flowers were white gladioli.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the garden of the Parr home at 456 West Campbell avenue, Campbell. Mrs. W. L. McWhirter served the cake. Mrs. John Pollard and Mrs. Harold Lynch presided at the punch bowls. They were assisted by the Misses Jeanne and Anita Bocca.

For going away, Mrs. Fish chose a suit of aqua wool and completed her costume with brown.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph Herbert Parr of Campbell. The groom's mother is Mrs. F. W. Fish also of Campbell.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Byrne H. Cooke, a sister of the bride, and her daughter Monica of Ennis, Texas.

The flowers for the church and the bride's attendants were styled by Mrs. W. L. McWhirter.

A marriage license was granted last week to Sanford N. Hedegard, 24, and E. Lorene Hoerner, 22, both of Campbell.

Rural Districts to Have More Phones

An expanded program of the Bell Telephone System to take rural telephone service to a million additional farms after the war, is outlined by John J. Hanselman, head of the commercial department of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, and Harold S. Osborne, chief engineer, in a booklet just issued entitled "More and Better Telephone Service for Farmers."

The booklet is being distributed locally by W. E. Williams, district manager of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The proposed expansion, the booklet points out, will about double the present number of Bell System telephones in rural areas. Even with new economies in construction, it is expected to cost about $100,000,000. Surveys necessary to further expansion are already being made.

Estimates indicate that 80 per cent of all rural families are located either along existing pole lines or near enough to them so that service can be installed without a special construction charge. A big part of the Farm Telephone program, therefore, is to make the advantages of telephone service more fully understood by these families.

For reaching the 20 per cent of farm families that are now distant from pole lines, new techniques will be available.

To extend lines, for instance, high-strength steel wire will permit longer distances between poles, so that only about half as many poles will be needed as formerly. Also, more use will be made of insulated wire put underground with a special plow.

For farmers who have electric service, but are remote from existing telephone lines, transmission of telephone conversations over power lines is a possibility.

Church Board Meets Tuesday

The board of the Congregational church met Tuesday evening at the home of Stanley B. Smith to consider plans for the summer.

This coming Sunday, June 17, there will be no morning service, but members are welcome to attend the Methodist church where Rev. Tom Farley is substituting.

Rev. Robert Carlson, a graduate of the Pacific School of Religion of the class of 1945, will occupy the pulpit on Sunday, June 24.

There will be no youth meeting the remaining two Sundays of June, but will resume July 1, Miss Dorothy Merriman states.

The Past Noble Grand club will convene Thursday evening, June 28 at the home of Mrs. E. Grant, National avenue, Los Gatos. The last regular meeting was held at the home of Anna Bachman, with Phoebe Gregory, hostess.

tra, Pierre Monteux conducting; Helen Traubel; Paul Robeson; Bartlett and Robertson, duo-pianists; the Don Cossacks, Serge Jaroff directing; Russian Ballet by the Ballet Theatre; Joseph Szegeti, violinist; the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo; Argentinita and her Spanish Ensemble, featuring Ravel's "Bolero."

Local Man's Company Cited In Italy

With the Fifth Army, in Italy—Pvt. Laverne G. Gagliasso, son of Mrs. Adaline Gagliasso of Campbell, is a member of Company B of the 338th Infantry Regiment, recently awarded the Distinguished Unit Citation for having taken and secured high ground dominating Il Giogo Pass while the Fifth Army knifed through the Gothic Line, one of the last great barriers that stood between the Allies and complete victory over the enemy in Italy that was to be won in April.

Company B crossed barren, rocky terrain, barbed wire entanglements and minefields to reach and take the crest of Mt. Altuzzo, while from both flanks sniper fire and intense fire from automatic weapons sprayed the route of advance. Machinegun fire was received from three sides. One man knocked out a German machinegun that was fired from a pillbox 50 yards to the front and a combat patrol operating forward of the rest of the company drove off a Jerry self-propelled gun. The company was hard hit in its advance to the peak.

Cambrian Club Elects Officers

The last regular monthly meeting of the Cambrian Home and School club was held Wednesday, June 6 with Mrs. Marion Pratt, president, presiding.

A short business session was held, the board members giving their yearly reports. Mrs. Pratt then gave the gavel to the new President, Mrs. Helen Doerr wishing her much success in the months to come.

A lovely gift was presented to the outgoing president by Mrs. Sarah Blue with the compliments of the club.

Mrs. Doerr read the names of the new cabinet for 1945 and 1946:

Mrs. Eleanor Nelson, hospitality; Mrs. Harriet Edsinger, home service; Mrs. Geraldine Cash, publicity; Mrs. Irene Farnham, war service; Mrs. Jessie Shelley, ways and means; Miss Barbara Root, music; Miss Leila Merritt, teachers; Mrs. Marie Roles, U. S. O.; Mrs. Clara Price, membership; Mr. Delos Bagby, school.

A social hour was enjoyed with delicious refreshments served by the mothers. Children were cared for by the Camp Fire Girls.

Garden Forum to Meet Saturday

"Vignettes of the Gardens of San Jose de Guadalupe" will be the theme of the June meeting of the San Jose Garden Forum on Saturday in Room B of the Civic Auditorium.

The program will start at 2 p.m. and will open with musical selections by Miss Mary Elizabeth Falch of Los Gatos, harpist, and Homer De Witt Pugh of San Jose, vocalist.

Mrs. Bertha Marguerite Rice, head of the Garden Forum, will preside and introduce the guest artists and persons participating in the program, including the descendants of early pioneers. They will relate reminiscences of early days in an effort to help create and preserve the atmosphere and beauty of some of the early gardens and homes of this locality.

In Memoriam

HARRY C. SMITH

June 15, 1937

SUCCESS is speaking words of praise,
In cheering other people's ways,
In doing just the best you can,
With every task and every plan,
It's silence when your speech would hurt,
Politeness when your neighbor's curt,
It's deafness when the scandal flows,
And sympathy with others' woes,
It's loyalty when duty calls,
It's courage when disaster falls,
It's patience when the hours are long,
It's found in laughter and in song,
It's in the silent time of prayer,
In happiness and in despair,
In all of life and nothing less,
We find the thing we call success.

Mary Manzoni In Auto Accident

Mrs. Mary Manzoni of Campbell was seriously injured Friday when her automobile went out of control and struck a tree as she rescued her three-year-old daughter, Geraldine from falling out of the car.

The little girl unlatched the rear door of the car and started falling out. Mrs. Manzoni reached back and leaning out clutched her daughter by the hair and probably saved her life.

The accident occurred on the Santa Clara-Los Gatos road and Mrs. Manzoni was taken to the County hospital, where she was found to be suffering from shock, head injuries, cuts and bruises and possible internal injuries.

Marvin E. McCorkle, a member of this years graduating class of Campbell Union High School recently joined the Navy.

The sermon will include the following verse from the 91st Psalm: "Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name"; and a correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook (p. 243).

More Blood Donors Needed

The Red Cross blood donor service reported that of the names which signed up for Tuesdays donations there were 73 cancellations out of 250 appointments, which left the day 23 short of the quota. "Many people do not realize the urgency of the need," said Mrs. Kenneth S. Conn, chairman, last evening. "V-E Day has come and gone, but there is no let-up in the need for plasma and whole blood. Pacific Coast quotas have not been cut, yet each week since V-E Day the number of those who fail to keep their blood donor appointments increases."

Campbell's donors were: Fred Welch, Art Tindall, Jennie Gomes, V. A. Thoeny, Anna Stoutmore, Marge Carmen, Frances Duncan, Anna Bachman, Merle Shaves, John D. Clemens, A. C. Holder, Edna Flagg.

Ice Follies Opened In San Francisco On Wednesday

The Shipstads and Johnson, for six years the all time favorites of San Francisco entertainment-goers, will bring their spectacular Ice Follies back to that city, now their "home", on June 13, it was announced today. Their summer showing will be at Winterland, their usual habitat.

The famous ice show, largest in the nation today, is expected to play its usual three month season in San Francisco, during which time the company will engage in production of next year's presentation.

George J. Campbell, General Manager of Winterland, said that the 1945 edition of the Ice Follies will present practically all of the favorite ice stars of the past few years with a generous portion of new stars, many thrills, and a great deal of comedy.

Heading the list of ice greats who are again with the frosted fantasy are Roy

Wm. L. Harrison of Alice avenue rescued a flag that parachuted from a bomb bursting high in air that landed atop the Grayson building in San Jose. Capture of these flags entitle the rescuers to a $25 bond. Harrison took out the bond in the name of his daughter Barbara, with her sister, Patricia Lou, as co-beneficiary. This daily event is one of the promotional features of the bond sales campaign.

Shipstad, the world's smoothest skater, Eddie Shipstad Oscar Johnson, the top comic team of the North American continent; Heinie Brock, master mimic of the ice; Hazel Franklin, English ice beauty; Frick and Frack, Swiss zanyes; Idi Papez and Karl Zwack, continental favorites; the Thomas Twins; the Roberts; Phyllis Legg, only feminine stilt skater in the world; the Miltons, surprise laugh hit; Ruby Maxson and Bobby Blake, famed "sweet-hearts of the Swing Waltz." Evelyn Chandler, "America's Queen of the Ice," has rejoined the show and newcomers include Jane Zeiser; Dick and Bill Cameron, youthful comics, and Barry Green, Canadian ace, who turns in a torrid pair exhibition with Hazel Franklin.

This is the ninth annual edition of the Ice Follies. It is hailed as greater than any of its predecessors.

Tickets for the Ice Follies of 1945 may be obtained now at Winterland and at Sheman Clay box offices in San Francisco and Oakland.

MOST of the wars of the world have been fought on California soil, around Hollywood, for the cameras. And believe you me, that includes the fracas that started in the Garden of Eden and is still going on—the battle of the sexes.

All kidding aside, Hollywood has become an expert military tactician, recreating combats from the dawn of history right down to the most modern warfare of World War II. Hardly a major engagement in the eternal struggle of man against man has not been waged for the studio cameras.

Within the shadow of Hollywood's peaceful hills Greek phalanxes have marched and died. Cortez and his Spanish invaders have sent Montezuma to his doom. The French have flooded the streets of Paris with the blood of civil war, stormed and captured the Bastille, and sent Marie Antoinette and Louis XVI to the guillotine. We've re-filmed the defeat of the Boche at Verdun. And the heroism of Doolittle and his bombing crew over Tokyo has been brought to the screen to thrill the hearts of all who believe in the Allied cause.

Now It's China

Right now Hollywood is doubling for China, and Leslie Fenton is staging a Jap bomber foray against the China coast for "Pardon My Past." Fred MacMurray, who plays a merchant seaman, gets a chance to see how the Nips work from overhead—and, incidentally, so does the audience.

In contrast, "A Thousand and One Nights" uses Vasquez Rocks, several miles outside town as the desert near Bagdad.

For "Counter-Attack" Zoltan Korda took Paul Muni and Marguerite Chapman to Burbank, Calif., which appeared for this film as a portion of Russia invaded by the Germans. Last year Korda took a troupe to the Mojave, which served as the North African desert when Humphrey Bogart rode across it in a tank in "Sahara."

Ancient History

In contrast to the modern mechanized wars, the movies went back to the beginnings of history when Hal Roach made "1,000,000 B. C." The battles, which employed crude weapons of flint and stone, were as factual as archaeological experts could make 'em. Yep, Hollywood posed the stone age and got away with it.

Many other wars of antiquity have been fought for the movies. D. W. Griffith recreated the battles of biblical times for "Judith of Bethulia," which had Chatsworth, Calif., doubling for Palestine.

A few years later D. W. built Babylon right in what is now the heart of Hollywood. The walls of the city towered 300 feet into the air, and these walls were wide enough to accommodate two chariots racing abreast.

Cecil B. De Mille used the old Paramount lot to house Rome, and he had that city sacked by the barbarians for a flashback sequence in "Manslaughter."

Egypt in Own Back Yard

For "Cleopatra" C. B. built portions of Egypt and even reproduced the battle of Actium in the studio tank. Claudette Colbert was an Egyptian queen and sailed the studio's "Nile" in a luxurious barge that the real ruler couldn't have equaled.

The battle of Chateau Thierry, with John Gilbert participating, was one of the highlights of the unforgettable "The Big Parade." A few palm trees and native huts and presto! California became the Philippines for "The Real Glory," which had Gary Cooper in the star role.

The Mojave also did duty as North Africa for two versions of Ouida's novel "Under Two Flags." Napoleon's retreat from Moscow, one of the greatest of all military operations, was shot in the environs of Culver City when MGM made "Conquest," with Garbo and Charles Boyer.

Dunkirk, one of the gravest adventures of this war, was the climax of Ty Power's "A Yank in the RAF." Since, Ty has gone into uniform off the screen, Robert Taylor did a role in "Bataan" before he answered the call to the colors. Both have seen action more thrilling than they ever underwent before the cameras.

One of these aeons, men are going to stop acting like kids and put away their deadly toy guns and cannons. When men really grow up and learn to settle quarrels by arbitration—just talking things over—there will be an end to war.

Which is a wonderful thing to look forward to—except, maybe, for movie producers.

Bracken Goes Crosby

When you hear Crosby's voice coming out of Eddie Bracken's face in "Out of This World," you'll scream with laughter. The whole thing is a burlesque on swooning Sinatra. It's funny, but with greater care it could have been another "Once in a Lifetime." George Marshall, director, turns accidents into assets. When Don Costello had his toe broken by Alan Ladd during a scene in "Blue Dahlia," Marshall had the incident written into the script and they kept on shooting.

Students Called For Summer Fruit Work

An emergency call to high school students and their parents to enlist at once for summer service in saving the $450,000,000 fruit and vegetable crops of central and northern California was issued today by Emil Putz, president of the California Processors and Growers, Inc.

"A billion cans of food are needed for our fighting men in the Pacific and vast additional quantities of food are needed on the home front," said Putz, whose organization, comprised of processors, is accredited with packing 80 per cent of the fruits and vegetables of California, "and if we fail to pack these crops our troops and Americans everywhere will face grave shortages in food."

"Since there is only a handful of regular cannery workers available," added Putz, "we must by necessity depend on high school students and their parents for help. This is a vital, patriotic service and even though workers may not be called for some weeks, they are urged to enroll at once."

Attractive wages are promised even to persons with no experience. Two things are scheduled for students:

First, go right now to the school counselor and get a work permit.

Second, register at the United States Employment Office or the cannery nearest your home.

Board Members Of Club Meet

A last get-together for this school year of the Cambrian Home and School Club executive board members was held at the home of Mrs. Marion Pratt on June 4. Delicious refreshments were enjoyed together with walks through the lovely flower garden.

Present were Miss Barbara Root, Miss Leida Merritt, and Mesdames Roberta Daniel, Clara Price, Roy Stoner, Marie Roles and Sarah Blue.

Second Lt. Oren S. DuBois, 25, son of Mrs. Alma DuBois of North First street has been awarded a second Oak Leaf Cluster to the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement" during the Eighth Air Force bombing attacks on German military and industrial targets.

Fresh strawberries in December
Winter cranberries in July!

You'll need them both

194X Refrigerator and Home Freezer

Yes, in the plans for your 194X Home, provide room and adequate wiring for both refrigeration and frozen food storage.

Your Refrigerator will continue to be your faithful, can't-do-without cold storage space for perishable foods needed for daily meal preparation—milk, butter, cream, left-overs, frozen desserts, ice cubes.

Your Home Freezer will give you long-time storage space for frozen foods—fresh frozen fruits and vegetables, meat, ice cream by the gallon. You'll change the seasons with strawberries in December, winter cranberries in July. You'll save money—save shopping trips.

Plan now to have BOTH a refrigerator and home freezer in your NEXT kitchen.
